 spoke with pop in regards to incident at town hall on 5/2

Driving by the Common and saw a sign up at Mrs. Townleys house that read bring honesty and integrity back to Town Hall Vote Nancy Thompson. Funniest thing I have read in a while. Honesty coming from someone that was our Tax Collector for many years and claims she was certified.. Nope.. Never took a class. But let everyone in the public know that I had taken all my classes and failed it a couple of times. Integrity when she comes into the Town Hall screaming at me in front of everyone in the building and I filed a report with the Police Department. The Mrs. Thompson comes in and says at the COA function I am so proud of you gets in .. Thankfully there are two level heads that reel her in. She only pulled papers because I said I was going to help the new board.. I was one of the people that voted for her to be dismissed from the COA for bullying that Board. I dont usually put this stuff out there, but these are the bulls as we are all talking about.. They spread untrue statements that they get from one of the Assessors and run with it .. I can prove everything that I state here if anyone is interested in proof. The police report is filed. If this makes me seem like a whiner so be it.. I offered to run to help.. I did not want to stay on for another year of bullying.. Have a wonderful Easter.
