Hi

Hi

What happened
Today

I was told You ignored Joe ?

Not sure where you're getting that from. Went up to him shook hands told him good to see him shook his hand at the end and gave him a hug.

Please don't hold your feeling about me against him

This was very hard for me. The first year in many I felt unwelcome at the legion

Have no hard feeling against you or anyone else in town. We've always been friends. I don't get into town politics. I deal with enough at the legion.

He felt disrespected

And that hurts me

He has supported legion and always goes.

I have know idea what your talking about. I did not in any way

Did you shake chiefs hands and not his

I shook a lot of hands. I certainly shook chiefs hand a few times and I certainly shook Joes hand twice and gave a shoulder bump hug veteran to veteran. So really can't understand where this is coming from.

Them maybe he is not truthful

I just thought you hated him because of me

I feel very unwelcome

Well I don't hate anyone I would've given you a hug if you were there.

He said you didn't shake his hand

Ok this is childish and makes no sense. I'll talk to Joe about it, certainly didn't intend to disrespect anyone and I don't think I did!

Ok. Perfect

I just wanted it not to be because of em

Do you hate me too

Why would I?

Ashleigh hates me

Ashleigh keeps the town stuff to herself. I get one word answers. How's work going? She just replies "good".

I live her I am not sure what went wrong

Are you upset with me

About what?

Idk. I heard legion is supporting my opponent

I'm not upset with you at all.

We're not supporting anyone. We can't support any political party. They rented the pavilion for their event. We have no affiliation with any of that stuff.

Tabitha had been trashing me.

Didn't know if it got to you

We haven't heard anything.

And we didn't know either of the candidates that were here yesterday.

Connie was there ?

I'm not worried about being there. I was worried about Tabitha trashing me to you and dad
